

WE ARE LEARNING...

OUR SCHOOL VALUES

To be respectful. We do this by respecting ourselves, our peers, our school and the wishes of others.

Help me at home by recognising respect in our daily lives. Share with me how you are respectful and how respect helps people get along and live together in harmony.

LITERACY

To follow 'The Writing Process' to plan, draft and publish different text types including procedural texts.

To set goals for reading to help improve my comprehension, fluency and accuracy.

You can help me at home by encouraging me to read every night and complete my Reading Log.

NUMERACY

To investigate number patterns involving odd and even numbers.

To investigate solving addition and subtraction problems where there are unknown quantities.

To investigate how we use the information contained in maps to interpret them.

Help me at home by playing card and dice games with me. Ask my teacher for some game ideas.

INQUIRY FOCUS

To identify why it is important to have laws and to investigate the differences between rules and laws. To engage in a scientific investigation looking at natural disasters and how human activity can effect our environment.

To use and apply the Learner Assets of communicator, collaborator, self-manager, researcher and thinker through a range of explorative and student lead tasks.

Help me at home by

- helping me understand why we have rules in the home and at school and laws in our community.
- discussing with me the current natural disasters that are happening in our country and how these are impacting people and the environment.

PERSONAL GOALS

To work on my personal reading goal that I have set with my teacher for Term 1. I will use the strategies I learn at school during read to self, guided reading, and one-on-one feedback sessions with my teachers to help me read the books that I have at home.
